CoderDojo Luxembourg will be present on the eSkills4Jobs event on the 15th of December. We will start at 12:30 and it will last approximately until 14:00 and are graciously supported by Hack4Kids

Long Version

CoderDojo Luxembourg is a Code Club Luxembourg project driven by volunteers to teach coding and technologies to youngsters aged 9 to 18.

For the past year a steady group of 15-20 Kids has gathered in the heart of Luxembourg-City every Thursday no matter the weather.

On the 15th of December 2015 we will have a spontaneous Pop-up CoderDojo at the eSkills4Jobs conference from 12:30 to 14:00 in Dommeldange at the Parc Hotel Alvisse.

You can join us earlier to share a delicious lunch.

The exact address is:

120, Route d'Echternach
L-1453 Luxembourg

During this pop-up CoderDojo we will be programming small Radio Controlled devices to autonomously steer themselves through an obstacle course.

To register send an email to info@coderdojo.lu. We have only limited places.
